

OFFICE FOR LAY MINISTRY AT A GLANCE: MINISTRY EDUCATION, FORMATION & SUPPORT

CALLED AND GIFTED FOR THE THIRD MILLENNIUM

This four session exploration of the U.S. Bishops' document leads participants into reflection on the baptismal calls to holiness and service. Special attention is given to stewardship, evangelization, and lay ministry.

DIOCESAN LAY MINISTRY CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

Course options for 2006-2007:

a) Diocesan Lay Ministry Formation

Catholic Identity; Prayer & Spirituality, Sacred Scripture, Leadership & Communication, Sacraments & Worship, Christian Moral Life

b) Focus on Theology Program

Catholic Identity; Sacred Scripture, Christian Moral Life

c) Llamados a Servir diocesan courses for native speakers of Spanish

RCIA TEAM TRAINING AND RESOURCES

RCIA Listserv

Workshops in conjunction with Office for Liturgy

Deanery based training and support as requested

Consultation to parish teams

Interested in becoming Catholic?

SPECIALIZED MINISTRY TRAINING

Master Catechist certification

Training for specialized ministries, in response to needs and interest, e.g. bereavement ministry, liturgical ministries

PRISON MINISTRY NETWORK

Recruitment and orientation assistance to parishes

Listsers and newsnotes

Diocesan meetings for training, support, resource sharing

LIMEX (Loyola Institute for Ministry Extension graduate program)

Master's degree or graduate certificate in religious education or pastoral studies offered in the Diocese of Raleigh through Loyola University, New Orleans

ADVANCED STUDIES IN CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY

ADVANCED STUDIES IN PASTORAL LIFE AND ADMINISTRATION

Visiting faculty come to the Diocese of Raleigh to offer courses for personal enrichment or continuing education credit from Loyola University, New Orleans. Courses are offered as local interest warrants. Qualified applicants can pursue a "Specialized Certificate in Parish Life and Administration" or "Specialized Certificate in Christian Spirituality"

PEARL STREB POWERS FORMATION FUND

Diocesan scholarship money may be applied for to help the student and parish finance ministry training opportunities for various areas of service

RELM (Raleigh Ecclesial Lay Ministers)

Association for spiritual and professional development of lay ecclesial ministers.

For assistance or more information concerning any of the above, please contact

Bea Callery--phone: 919-821-9715; fax: 919-821-9705; e-mail: bea.allery@raldioc.org